

MacOS Roku Screen Mirroring

Bring up the Control Center.

Select Screen Mirroring.

Select your Roku device from the list.

Typically, this process shouldn't take more than a few seconds if you have a good connection.

Note that you might need to type an AirPlay passcode on your Mac before you can proceed. The passcode is generated and displayed on the Roku device's screen if the connection is established.